President Bill Lane of Salt Lake Club Tells of New Plans

Ogden baseball team may receive a boost in the way of national exposure if the Pacific Coast League has its way. The league has arranged for the season opener on April 7th at the Ogden ball park. Ogden will be the host city for the game.

However, a last minute hitch in the plans was encountered. The Ogden team is not yet ready to play, and the league officials are working on it to make sure it is ready for the opening game.
